

START SOMETHING GUIDE

Advising

At the College of Business, academic advisors help educate, empower, and encourage students during their experience at Nebraska. We seek to build a professional relationship with you in order to promote your individualized academic, professional and personal development.

WHY SHOULD I SEE AN ACADEMIC ADVISOR?

- > Semester class scheduling
- > Major/minor exploration
- > Transfer credit evaluation
- > Academic mapping
- > Global immersion opportunities
- > Transition and success strategies
- > Campus resources
- > General questions

HOW DO I MEET WITH AN ADVISOR?

Make an appointment with any of our academic advisors on MyPLAN (myplan.unl.edu). Walk-in and appointment hours are Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. You'll meet with one of the following advisors:

Jeff Burdic
Natasha Crawford
Louisa Ehrlich

Megan Friesen
Matt Geyer
Wendy Hunt

Jennifer Mostek
Ashley Wegener
Rachel Wesley

HOW SHOULD I PREPARE FOR AN ADVISING SESSION?

- 1 Review and bring your degree audit.
- 2 Make a list of questions.
- 3 Be prepared to discuss successes and concerns.

TOP SUCCESS TIPS

- 1 Organize commitments and class responsibilities in one place, like a planner
- 2 Study 2-3 hours a week per credit hour enrolled (e.g. 30 hours studying for 15 credit hours)
- 3 Ask questions early to your professors and academic advisors
- 4 Expect that college will be harder than high school
