

University of Nebraska-Lincoln
College of Business Administration

CBA Events November

10-13 Masters Week
CBA
Marilyn Hoskins
mhoskins2@unl.edu

9 Free screening of "An Inconvenient Tax"
4:00pm-6:00pm
City Campus Union

12 Strength-Based Business Development
Workshop
CRCDC
CBA
8:00am-5:00pm
Carol Rogers
crogers3@unl.edu

14 Screening of "Inside
Job" and panel discussion
1:00pm-4:00pm
Ross Theater

November

31	1	2	3	4	5	6
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
28	29	30	1	2	3	4

*Click on the red dates to find out more information about the events held on those days.

CBA News

Peter Harms' article that will be published in The Leadership Quarterly was featured in a CNN Living story in early October. To read the full article visit <http://www.cnn.com/2010/LIVING/10/12/dark.side.management/index.html?hpt=C2>

Ann Mari May, Executive Vice President and Treasurer of the International Association for Feminist Economics (IAFFE) is pleased to announce that IAFFE has recently received a grant from the Ford Foundation for $250,000 to fund the development of a special issue on "Land, Gender, and Food Security" to be published in IAFFE's journal, Feminist Economics.

Congratulations to Brandon Lockhart and his wife Kristy on the birth of their third child on Wednesday, October 20. Casper "Caz" Britton Lockhart weighed 8 lbs 10 oz, and joins siblings Mari Cagle (8) and Nathan (6).

The Actuarial Science Foundation received an award for Excellence in Financial Literacy Education. The Foundation's program, Building Your Future gives teens a lifetime of sound personal financial and money management skills, covering topics such as credit cards, loans, taxes, insurance, inflation, and managing bank accounts, to name a few. Warren Luckner currently serves as a board member for the Foundation.

The UNL community and public are invited to attend a free screening of the documentary "An Inconvenient Tax" and a discussion with filmmaker Vincent Vittorio and Professor John Anderson on Tuesday, November 9th from 4:00pm-6:00pm in the Nebraska City Campus Union.

Gordie Karels will be a guest speaker at the showing of "Inside Job" at the Ross on Thursday, November 14 from 1:00pm-4:00pm.

*Reminder: Suggest upcoming events and stories highlighting achievements of faculty or students to your support staff or send them to Web Coordinator, Roger Simonsen.

The Testing Center is a busy place. Please remind your students to read the policies and procedures of the Testing Center before arriving to take an exam. The policies and procedures are found at www.cba.unl.edu/people/testingcenter and you can post the url to their blackboards.

Click the Icons to join us on Facebook and LinkedIn

Publications and Conferences

Ann Mari May was an invited speaker in the opening panel discussion, “Leveling the Academic Playing Field,” for the 125th anniversary of Bryn Mawr College. The conference featured New York Times columnist and Pulitzer Prize winning author, Nicholas Kristof.

Todd Weber’s chapter, co-authored with 14 other cross-cultural researchers, “Scientific Mindfulness: A foundation for future themes in international business,” was accepted for publication in the 2010 Advances in International Management: The Past, Present and Future of International Business and Management (volume 23). An earlier version of this manuscript was designated as one of the best accepted papers for the 2010 Academy of Management meetings and won the Carolyn Dexter Award and all-Academy award for the best paper that focuses on internationalizing the Academy. He also had an article, co-authored with Bill Gentry and Golnaz Sadri, “Empathic Emotion and Leadership Performance: An Empirical Analysis Across 38 Countries,” accepted for publication at Leadership Quarterly.

Bill Walstad was invited by the San Francisco Federal Reserve Bank to participate in a working group meeting on “Improving Evaluation and Metrics in Youth Financial Education” held October 28-29. He also presented a paper on the “Status of High School Economics” and gave a presentation on the 2012 National Assessment of Educational Progress in economics at the Council for Economic Education annual meeting in Miami, October 8.

Keng Siau’s paper, “Important characteristics of software development team members: an empirical investigation using Repertory Grid” was published in the Information Systems Journal, 20(6), 2010.

John Anderson will deliver the Pre-Lecture Talk for the E.N. Thompson Forum on World Issues on Wednesday, November 10th at 6:30 pm. The evening’s lecture will feature former Senator Chuck Hagel and Chinese Ambassador Zhang discussing the topic, “China Rising: Good News or Bad News for U.S. Workers, Consumers and Investors?”

Emre Unlu has received notice that his paper, “Earned/Contributed Capital, Dividend Policy, and Disclosure Quality: An International Study” with Paul Brockman, has been accepted for publication in the Journal of Banking and Finance.

Fiona Nah is ranked #6 in the list of most prolific authors in human-computer interaction research based on journal publications from 1990-2007, according to a book chapter entitled “Human-Computer Interaction” by Zhang, Galletta, Li, & Sun in a forthcoming book, Management Information Systems. She is also ranked #9 in the list of most prolific authors in human-computer interaction research based on journal publications from 2003-2008, according to a journal publication in AIS Transactions on Human-Computer Interaction by Zhang, Li, Scialdone, & Carey (2009).

The Financial Management Association Meetings were held in NYC from October 20-23rd. Kathy Farrell, Emre Unlu, John Geppert and Thuy Simpson (PhD student) all attended the meetings. The following two papers were presented at the conference: “An Empirical Analysis of Stock Repurchases as an Earnings Management Mechanism” by Kathy Farrell, Emre Unlu and Jin Yu (past UNL PhD student who is now an Assistant Professor at St. Cloud University) and “Director Stock Ownership and Acquisition Activity of Firms” by Kathy Farrell and Rashiqa Kamal (past PhD student who is now an Assistant Professor at University of Wisconsin - Whitewater).

George Rejda is proud to announce the publication of the 11th edition of Principles of Risk Management and Insurance (2010) and the 7th edition of Social Insurance and Economic Security (forthcoming July 2011).

Hank Van den berg’s new textbook, International Finance and Open Economy Macroeconomics: Theory, History, and Policy has been published. The book’s continual links between theory and the real world will hopefully help motivate students to understand and appreciate the complexity of our global economy.