Economic Educators:

On Wednesday, October 18, 2017, the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Center for Economic Education will again sponsor Economics Day for Students on the UNL campus. Co-sponsoring the event includes the UNL Economics Department, the Nebraska Council on Economic Education, UNL/CoB Admissions offices.

Economics Day for Students brings together 150 high school juniors and seniors from across our state to the UNL campus. The purpose of the day is to introduce these top students to the exciting area of economics, the College of Business Administration, and UNL in general. We invite you to select the students to attend.

The students would meet at 8:45am at the new College of Business building, room 231. (14th and Vine streets). From approximately 9:00 to 1:45 they would participate in simulations and activities along with UNL faculty on topics related to the areas of microeconomics, macroeconomics, and international economics as well as take part in a personal tour of campus. The day will include lunch sponsored by the Economics Department/Nebraska Council on Economic Education and UNL Admissions.

The entire program will conclude by 2pm. Parking for busses is available off of 14th Street, North of the Devaney Center. I recommend using the parking garages in downtown Lincoln if arriving by van or car as meters are difficult to find and maintain.

This event is a stimulating and informative day for all students and teachers involved. Since we are limiting participation to the first 150 students, please inform me of your plans as soon as possible, but no later than Friday, October 6. To register, please fax or e-mail the attached form. Should you have any questions or need more information, please call me at 402/472-2333 or email at tfischer1@unl.edu.

Sincerely,

Tammie Fischer
Director
